A DECLARATION OF THE TRVE MANNER of knowing Christ crucified. 625.1.2

A GRAINE OF MYSTARD-SEED. THE CONTENTS.

I. Conclusion.	A man that doth but begin to be first converted, is even at that instant the very child of God, though inwardly he be more carnall then spirittuall. 637.1,2	IV. Conclusion.	To see and feele in our selues the want of any grace, pertaining to saluation, and to be grieved therefore, is the grace it selfe. 641.1,2
II. Conclusion.	The first materiall beginnings of the conversion of a sinner, or the smallest measure of renewing grace, haue the promises of this life, and the life to come. 638.1,2	V. Conclusion.	Hee that hath begun to forsake himselfe to Christ and his word, though as yet he be ignorant in most points of religion: yet if he haue a care to increase in knowledge, and to practise that which he knoweth, hee is accepted of God, as a true beleuer. 642.1,2
III. Conclusion.	A constant and earnest desire to be reconciled to God, to beleue and to repent, if it be in a touched heart, is in acceptance of God, as reconciliation, faith, repentance it selfe. 638.2,3	VI. Conclusion.	The foresaid beginnings of grace are counterfeit, vnlesse they increase. ibid.
